with the entering, clearing, lading, or operation of any vessel or other means on conveyance owned or operated by said grantor;

To issue Powers of Attorney on behalf of the grantor of this Power of Attorney to other customhouse brokers to transact Customs business on behalf of the grantor, to receive, endorse and collect checks issued for Customs duty refunds in grantor's name drawn of the Treasurer of the United States; if the grantor is a nonresident of the United States, to accept service of process on behalf of the grantor;

And generally to transact at the customhouses in any district and all customs business, including making, signing, and filing protests under section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, in which said grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by any agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever requisite and necessary to be done in the premises as fully as said grantor could do if present and acting, hereby ratifying and confirming all that the said agent and attorney shall lawfully do by virtue of these presents; the foregoing power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until the _____ day of _____, 20____, or until notice of revocation in writing is duly given to and received by a District Director of Customs. If the donor of this power of attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force or effect after the expiration of 2 year from the date of its execution.

In the execution of this document, it is expressly understood that payment of the grantee, if a broker, does not relieve the grantor of the liability for Customs charges (duties, taxes, or other debts owed to Customs) in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if payment is by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to "U.S. Customs and Border Protection," which shall be delivered to Customs by the broker.

In the execution of this document, it is expressly understood that A.J. Arango, Inc., its parent, its divisions and its wholly owned subsidiaries, limit their liability to the extent provided for under law and in accordance with the A.J. Arango, Inc. Terms and Conditions of Service; a written copy which grantor hereby acknowledges having received.
